

SMALL GROUP FIXED DATE OPEN DEPARTURES

Start Date is the date you should arrive at the destination country, and your programme is scheduled to start that day with transfer to hotel and briefing.

The Length is the number of days in country required to complete the itinerary. Of course we shall be delighted to organise an extension and other activities for you. Therefore, we finalise the End Date once you have booked and whether or not you wish to extend.

Prices are for the ground arrangements without flights, although any essential internal flights are usually included. Prices are based on rates as at Jan 13 and may change. Prices for 2014 are estimated. Terms such as minimum numbers for the group to run will apply. These will be explained in the main itinerary for each trek. Usually a group will run when four people have signed up, but we do run smaller groups with small group supplement charges. We aim to keep our groups small so as to give detailed and dedicated service to each participant.

Flights: We quote for your flights at the time you make your booking. Our team will book the best routing and fare for you.

Extensions: We offer extensions such as safaris in Africa, India and Chitwan NP tours for Nepal based treks, and Peru rainforest and Galapagos extensions in South America.
