

'In the Footsteps of Thesiger' Desert Journey

Departing January 2014*

* We hope to run this unique tour again in 2016. Please do get in touch if you are interested in participating. The costs and programme outlined below apply to 2014, but they will likely be very similar for any future dates.

Our five day journey through the sands of Oman, accompanied by Bedouin and camels, gives you the opportunity to step out of our increasingly busy, wired and overcrowded life; an opportunity to redefine your values, and to put life in perspective.

During your Desert Journey you will learn to bake your own bread under the sand, to grind your own cardoman coffee, and to navigate by the sun and the stars. You'll return home motivated, refreshed and energised.

The 'In the Footsteps of Thesiger' journey involves trekking on foot through the desert, using camels for support. Our journey through the sands follows an ancient desert trade route called the Darb Muqta'a Habl, which translates as 'the route that cuts between the tallest dunes', connecting the coast of the Arabian sea to the Eastern Hajar mountains.
