The morning will be spent photographing different subjects, from the very small to the very big, before returning to camp for lunch.

After enjoying a delicious lunch, you can choose to enjoy a midday siesta or sort through your photographs and practice with Adobe Lightroom.

After tea and cakes you head back into the park in the late afternoon/dusk to find more subjects to photograph, returning to camp for dinner around half eight.

Most evenings there will be a slideshow illustrating some of the points taught throughout the day, and you'll also have a chance to show off your best shots.

8th November: Nsefu Camp

Following a relaxed breakfast you will head out of camp on foot with your guide and trek towards Nsefu Camp, stopping for tea and cake along the way and arriving in time for lunch.

Nsefu Camp is situated on a sweeping bend of the Luangwa River. Zambia's original game camp, it dates back to the early fifties, when the Nsefu Sector was first recognised, and is one of only two Robin Pope camps in this sector of the Park.
